BENEFIT

For Girard's Band Friday May 17th.

A very interesting program has been arranged, which will be presented at Holland's Opera House Friday evening May 17th. It will be a first class Vaudeville show with entertaining and amusing features from start to finish, a full program of which will be given to the public in a few days. Hopkinsville has reason to feel proud of her most excellent band of twenty-two pieces, and the benefit is given for the purpose of purchasing new uniforms. The Opera House should be filled with those who appreciate this public enterprise and lend their aid to make the event a grand success.

SHOT HIMSELF.

Sam Boales Attempts to Annihilate Himself.

Sam Boales, a boy nineteen years old, a son of W. S. Boales, on Monday attempted to kill himself in a bawdy house near the city. Boales was infatuated with a girl named Jessie Northington and at a late hour went to the house of which she was an inmate and found another man in her room. He at once opened fire on the couple and the man fled from the room escaping unhurt.

The girl promptly fainted and Boales thinking he had killed her shot grazed his forehead and a second imbedded itself in the skull over the right eye. It was at first believed the boy was badly hurt, but he was soon able to be moved to his home in the city. The ball was extracted and he is getting well. The weapon used was a Smith & Wesson No. 32.
